Info about kids online

www.kids.nsw.gov.au

If you are doing some homework on kids in NSW, you can find all the information you need at Kids' Stats!

There's information about how many kids there are in NSW, how many kids are working or have finished school, where they live, what they do for fun and lots of other stuff!

The website gets new things on it all the time so be sure to check out what's new.

Even if you're not doing homework, it would be fun just to know.

KIDS HAVE A SAY!

Every year, CCYP visits many towns and cities around NSW to talk with kids about things that would make their lives better.

We also have 12 young people who help us to understand - how you are feeling

what is important to you

what is going on in your life

what we can do to make things better for you

Who are we?

The Commission for Children and Young people (or CCYP for short) is a place where grown-ups come to work to make kids' lives better in NSW.

What do we do?

We listen to you and pass on your views to people who make decisions.

We find out more about or research things that affect you and all kids in NSW.

We talk to people who make decisions. They use your ideas to change things for the better.

HI I'M OLI, AND THAT'S MIMI, WE'RE HERE TO HELP YOU LEARN ABOUT CCYP AND THE COOL THINGS THEY DO FOR US KIDS!

HIYA!

WHAT'S UP DOC?
